

Field Trip Guidelines ~ World War II Flight Training Museum

1. If you are running late or need to cancel your tour please call 912-383-9111 as soon as possible. Staff is available to answer email correspondence and phone calls Thursday – Saturdays 11:00-4:00pm. Please leave a message if you are calling outside those days and times. Staff will return your message during open hours.
2. Upon arrival, the museum docent will meet your group outside the Museum Office.
3. If you requested in advance as a part of your tour, you will meet a WASP (Women Airforce Service Pilot)* who was the female equivalent to the cadets that learned how to fly at Douglas. You will learn about the flight training detachment and World War II through her eyes. Please be respectful of the WASP re-enactor.
4. Restrooms are very limited and cannot accommodate your entire group. Please plan to use the restroom before your visit.
5. You may picnic lunch on the 63rd Detachment grounds. There are no indoor eating facilities. Have a back-up plan in case of rain.
6. A small gift shop is located in the Museum Office. Please review the merchandise list before your visit and notify the docent upon arrival if students plan to buy souvenirs.
7. Please review the Museum Rules with your students before your visit.

For a pre-visit activity...

1. Review History and Training sections on the website with your students.
2. Use these worksheets in your classroom:

Words to Know list and Word Search

What can the 63rd AAFTD tell us..

Museum Rules~

- Teachers and Chaperones are responsible for the group at all times and must remain with the group.
- For your safety:
 - Please do not touch anything unless directed to by the docent.
 - Walk at all times and watch your step paying close attention to the surface of the original sidewalk, pinecones, and objects in museum and hangar.
- Stay with your group at all times.
- Please silence or turn off cell phones.
- You may take photographs, but please turn off the flash.
- Listen to your guide and ask lots of questions!

*WASP character is subject to staff availability and must be requested when you schedule the tour.